GALLERY ARTRIO:

Gallery Artrio specializes in original fine art by award-winning and nationally recognized artists, as well as emerging artists of note. Media includes oil, pastel, watercolor, hand-blown glass from local artists, and beautiful hand wrought jewelry. The gallery hosts openings throughout the summer including plein air painting as part of Cape Cod Hydrangea festival on July 14th and artist receptions on July 16th, August 6th and August 27th 6:00pm-8:00pm. The annual Gallery Soiree is scheduled for Saturday, September 10th, 2016. Find listing of events and artists on line at galleryartrio.com

AROUND DOWNTOWN:

Keystones-Community art project

Artist Lenore Lyons wants to welcome residents and visitors alike this summer in a special way. She has created Keystones-beach stones rubbed with colorful keys. All are invited to find the keystones over the summer months, visit the website, www.keyideaproject.com and share their thoughts on "the key to a perfect Cape Cod vacation". 1,000 keystones—will be in place by July 4th, in and around Hyannis, all seven villages in Barnstable and Cape wide.

Kick off event-free, Friday, June 24th, 4:00pm-5:30pm at the Hyannis HyArts Artist Shanties. Make a keystone, kindness rocks and enjoy the sounds of ukulele players.

Route 6A & Rendezvous Lane, Barnstable Village

Barnstable Village self-guided Historic Walking Tour:

Trace history as you stroll through the self-guided tour and experience the rich historical heritage of this area on the Old King's Highway. Walk from the Barnstable House, just beyond Rendezvous Lane to the Unitarian Church and cemeteries. Start at any point on the map and follow in either direction. It traces the evolution of the area, hopefully creating a picture of what life was like here in its early history.

Free maps are available at Cape Cod Art Association, area Barnstable Village businesses and on-line at artsbarnstable.com/resources.
